

Early this morning, two KBI Special Agents stationed in Pittsburg, on their way to federal court in Kansas City, were involved in a collision in a driving rainstorm. The accident occurred on Highway 69, south of Louisburg, KS. The operator and sole occupant of the other vehicle was declared dead at the scene. The agents were transported to an area hospital by ambulance. One of the agents is in critical condition, and the other agent was treated and released from the hospital.

The Kansas Highway Patrol is investigating the accident.
